CPC Bulletin is published, when we have enough material of our members; so, we ask our members and other people to bring us their articles and photos as well as donations to promote the art and science of Photography throughout the world and making an international relation between photographers all over the world.

This bulletin contains articles and photos of the members of CPC. The editor and CPC cannot be held responsible for the contents of any accepted articles, advertising or posting of events that have been submitted. Opinions and photos expressed in this bulletin are those of the authors and photographers and do not necessarily reflect those of CPC.
